

WATCH YOURSELVES, IDOLS

(<https://thelightof.life>)

An idol does not see, nor hear, nor speak; it is a copy of a thing and it is made with human hands: a deception, a trick, a stumbling block to the undiscerning; it makes one think it is the real thing in which it imitates. It deters one from looking to the real, but instead, to its fake, stealing what was intended for the real to itself and wasting it, making its worshippers just as useless as it is. It's a copy that imitates the real, having none of the real in itself. Pictures, videos, statues, or even a religious temple could be an idol, if it is worshipped and adored (and again, why would anyone create an idol unless for the purpose of worship since an image is useless?) It has no eyes, but it is trusted for sight; it has no ears, but it is spoken to; it has not a mouth, but it is waited upon for an answer. Even so Israel's temple, made by human hands, is a copy of the heavenly temple, as it says, "The place where they (the priests) serve is a copy and shadow of what is in heaven. This is why Moses was warned when he was about to build the tabernacle: 'See to it that you make everything according to the pattern shown to you on the mountain' [Hebrews 8]" But the people were led astray to worship the temple rather than God who makes the temple holy. As the Most High says, "Heaven is My throne and the earth is My footstool. Where then is a house you could build for Me? And where is a place that I may rest? For My hand made all these things, Thus all these things came into being [Isaiah 66]". All physical things are destined to pass away; they all wear out like a garment and like a garment they will be removed; these things deteriorate more-so as we use them. Even so our bodies have an end which is death & decay. But the apostle says, "While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen; for the things which are seen are temporal, but the things which are not seen are eternal [2 Corinthians 4]" Therefore, by the way of seeing things, faith cannot come since, "Faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen [Heb 11]" and "We walk by faith, not by sight [2 Cor 5]"

WATCH YOURSELVES, IDOLS

(<https://thelightof.life>)

An idol does not see, nor hear, nor speak; it is a copy of a thing and it is made with human hands: a deception, a trick, a stumbling block to the undiscerning; it makes one think it is the real thing in which it imitates. It deters one from looking to the real, but instead, to its fake, stealing what was intended for the real to itself and wasting it, making its worshippers just as useless as it is. It's a copy that imitates the real, having none of the real in itself. Pictures, videos, statues, or even a religious temple could be an idol, if it is worshipped and adored (and again, why would anyone create an idol unless for the purpose of worship since an image is useless?) It has no eyes, but it is trusted for sight; it has no ears, but it is spoken to; it has not a mouth, but it is waited upon for an answer. Even so Israel's temple, made by human hands, is a copy of the heavenly temple, as it says, "The place where they (the priests) serve is a copy and shadow of what is in heaven. This is why Moses was warned when he was about to build the tabernacle: 'See to it that you make everything according to the pattern shown to you on the mountain' [Hebrews 8]" But the people were led astray to worship the temple rather than God who makes the temple holy. As the Most High says, "Heaven is My throne and the earth is My footstool. Where then is a house you could build for Me? And where is a place that I may rest? For My hand made all these things, Thus all these things came into being [Isaiah 66]". All physical things are destined to pass away; they all wear out like a garment and like a garment they will be removed; these things deteriorate more-so as we use them. Even so our bodies have an end which is death & decay. But the apostle says, "While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen; for the things which are seen are temporal, but the things which are not seen are eternal [2 Corinthians 4]" Therefore, by the way of seeing things, faith cannot come since, "Faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen [Heb 11]" and "We walk by faith, not by sight [2 Cor 5]"

WATCH YOURSELVES, IDOLS

(<https://thelightof.life>)

An idol does not see, nor hear, nor speak; it is a copy of a thing and it is made with human hands: a deception, a trick, a stumbling block to the undiscerning; it makes one think it is the real thing in which it imitates. It deters one from looking to the real, but instead, to its fake, stealing what was intended for the real to itself and wasting it, making its worshippers just as useless as it is. It's a copy that imitates the real, having none of the real in itself. Pictures, videos, statues, or even a religious temple could be an idol, if it is worshipped and adored (and again, why would anyone create an idol unless for the purpose of worship since an image is useless?) It has no eyes, but it is trusted for sight; it has no ears, but it is spoken to; it has not a mouth, but it is waited upon for an answer. Even so Israel's temple, made by human hands, is a copy of the heavenly temple, as it says, "The place where they (the priests) serve is a copy and shadow of what is in heaven. This is why Moses was warned when he was about to build the tabernacle: 'See to it that you make everything according to the pattern shown to you on the mountain' [Hebrews 8]" But the people were led astray to worship the temple rather than God who makes the temple holy. As the Most High says, "Heaven is My throne and the earth is My footstool. Where then is a house you could build for Me? And where is a place that I may rest? For My hand made all these things, Thus all these things came into being [Isaiah 66]". All physical things are destined to pass away; they all wear out like a garment and like a garment they will be removed; these things deteriorate more-so as we use them. Even so our bodies have an end which is death & decay. But the apostle says, "While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen; for the things which are seen are temporal, but the things which are not seen are eternal [2 Corinthians 4]" Therefore, by the way of seeing things, faith cannot come since, "Faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen [Heb 11]" and "We walk by faith, not by sight [2 Cor 5]"

WATCH YOURSELVES, IDOLS

(<https://thelightof.life>)

An idol does not see, nor hear, nor speak; it is a copy of a thing and it is made with human hands: a deception, a trick, a stumbling block to the undiscerning; it makes one think it is the real thing in which it imitates. It deters one from looking to the real, but instead, to its fake, stealing what was intended for the real to itself and wasting it, making its worshippers just as useless as it is. It's a copy that imitates the real, having none of the real in itself. Pictures, videos, statues, or even a religious temple could be an idol, if it is worshipped and adored (and again, why would anyone create an idol unless for the purpose of worship since an image is useless?) It has no eyes, but it is trusted for sight; it has no ears, but it is spoken to; it has not a mouth, but it is waited upon for an answer. Even so Israel's temple, made by human hands, is a copy of the heavenly temple, as it says, "The place where they (the priests) serve is a copy and shadow of what is in heaven. This is why Moses was warned when he was about to build the tabernacle: 'See to it that you make everything according to the pattern shown to you on the mountain' [Hebrews 8]" But the people were led astray to worship the temple rather than God who makes the temple holy. As the Most High says, "Heaven is My throne and the earth is My footstool. Where then is a house you could build for Me? And where is a place that I may rest? For My hand made all these things, Thus all these things came into being [Isaiah 66]". All physical things are destined to pass away; they all wear out like a garment and like a garment they will be removed; these things deteriorate more-so as we use them. Even so our bodies have an end which is death & decay. But the apostle says, "While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen; for the things which are seen are temporal, but the things which are not seen are eternal [2 Corinthians 4]" Therefore, by the way of seeing things, faith cannot come since, "Faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen [Heb 11]" and "We walk by faith, not by sight [2 Cor 5]"

God in His glory made known that no-one shall see Him with their physical eyes, otherwise they would die; as He says, “You cannot see My face, for no man can see Me and live. [Exodus 33]” But through the eyes of faith we can see God which is truly seeing Him as He is: Spirit. “So faith comes from hearing, and hearing by the word of Christ. [Romans 10]”. Using the example of the sun: we cannot look directly at the sun, otherwise we would go blind. But we know that the sun exists because it provides light and heat to everyone. However, the Most High is not like the sun, but He created the sun, as Job testifies, “If I have looked at the sun when it shone Or the moon going in splendor, And my heart became secretly enticed, And my hand threw a kiss from my mouth, That too would have been an iniquity calling for judgement, for I would have denied God above. [Job 31]” How glorious is He, having created the heavens and the earth and filling them! As it is written, “He is not served by human hands, as though He needed anything, since He Himself gives to all people life and breath and all things [Acts 17]” and “For every beast of the forest is Mine, The cattle on a thousand hills. I know every bird of the mountains, And everything that moves in the field is Mine. If I were hungry I would not tell you, For the world is Mine, and all it contains. [Psalms 50]” But indeed, “Out of the Eater came something to eat, And out of the Strong came something sweet. [Judges 14]” The sacrifices offered to idols are not eaten since idols are dead, but the sacrifices offered to God are eaten by Him. Even so, God does not desire the sacrifice of animals although they were offered according to His Law, but instead, He gave the Sacrifice of His Son, Jesus Christ. And “By this will we have been sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all [Hebrews 10]” He is the powerful Lion from the tribe of Judah, bringing to us the sweet-fulness of the gospel of truth, in whose end is eternal life. He is the perfect image of the invisible God — in Him we know the Father. He died for our sins & was raised for our justification. In Him there is no sin or deceit, but grace & truth. Therefore, turn from idols and to the living God. (This is your bookmark)

God in His glory made known that no-one shall see Him with their physical eyes, otherwise they would die; as He says, “You cannot see My face, for no man can see Me and live. [Exodus 33]” But through the eyes of faith we can see God which is truly seeing Him as He is: Spirit. “So faith comes from hearing, and hearing by the word of Christ. [Romans 10]”. Using the example of the sun: we cannot look directly at the sun, otherwise we would go blind. But we know that the sun exists because it provides light and heat to everyone. However, the Most High is not like the sun, but He created the sun, as Job testifies, “If I have looked at the sun when it shone Or the moon going in splendor, And my heart became secretly enticed, And my hand threw a kiss from my mouth, That too would have been an iniquity calling for judgement, for I would have denied God above. [Job 31]” How glorious is He, having created the heavens and the earth and filling them! As it is written, “He is not served by human hands, as though He needed anything, since He Himself gives to all people life and breath and all things [Acts 17]” and “For every beast of the forest is Mine, The cattle on a thousand hills. I know every bird of the mountains, And everything that moves in the field is Mine. If I were hungry I would not tell you, For the world is Mine, and all it contains. [Psalms 50]” But indeed, “Out of the Eater came something to eat, And out of the Strong came something sweet. [Judges 14]” The sacrifices offered to idols are not eaten since idols are dead, but the sacrifices offered to God are eaten by Him. Even so, God does not desire the sacrifice of animals although they were offered according to His Law, but instead, He gave the Sacrifice of His Son, Jesus Christ. And “By this will we have been sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all [Hebrews 10]” He is the powerful Lion from the tribe of Judah, bringing to us the sweet-fulness of the gospel of truth, in whose end is eternal life. He is the perfect image of the invisible God — in Him we know the Father. He died for our sins & was raised for our justification. In Him there is no sin or deceit, but grace & truth. Therefore, turn from idols and to the living God. (This is your bookmark)

God in His glory made known that no-one shall see Him with their physical eyes, otherwise they would die; as He says, “You cannot see My face, for no man can see Me and live. [Exodus 33]” But through the eyes of faith we can see God which is truly seeing Him as He is: Spirit. “So faith comes from hearing, and hearing by the word of Christ. [Romans 10]”. Using the example of the sun: we cannot look directly at the sun, otherwise we would go blind. But we know that the sun exists because it provides light and heat to everyone. However, the Most High is not like the sun, but He created the sun, as Job testifies, “If I have looked at the sun when it shone Or the moon going in splendor, And my heart became secretly enticed, And my hand threw a kiss from my mouth, That too would have been an iniquity calling for judgement, for I would have denied God above. [Job 31]” How glorious is He, having created the heavens and the earth and filling them! As it is written, “He is not served by human hands, as though He needed anything, since He Himself gives to all people life and breath and all things [Acts 17]” and “For every beast of the forest is Mine, The cattle on a thousand hills. I know every bird of the mountains, And everything that moves in the field is Mine. If I were hungry I would not tell you, For the world is Mine, and all it contains. [Psalms 50]” But indeed, “Out of the Eater came something to eat, And out of the Strong came something sweet. [Judges 14]” The sacrifices offered to idols are not eaten since idols are dead, but the sacrifices offered to God are eaten by Him. Even so, God does not desire the sacrifice of animals although they were offered according to His Law, but instead, He gave the Sacrifice of His Son, Jesus Christ. And “By this will we have been sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all [Hebrews 10]” He is the powerful Lion from the tribe of Judah, bringing to us the sweet-fulness of the gospel of truth, in whose end is eternal life. He is the perfect image of the invisible God — in Him we know the Father. He died for our sins & was raised for our justification. In Him there is no sin or deceit, but grace & truth. Therefore, turn from idols and to the living God. (This is your bookmark)

God in His glory made known that no-one shall see Him with their physical eyes, otherwise they would die; as He says, “You cannot see My face, for no man can see Me and live. [Exodus 33]” But through the eyes of faith we can see God which is truly seeing Him as He is: Spirit. “So faith comes from hearing, and hearing by the word of Christ. [Romans 10]”. Using the example of the sun: we cannot look directly at the sun, otherwise we would go blind. But we know that the sun exists because it provides light and heat to everyone. However, the Most High is not like the sun, but He created the sun, as Job testifies, “If I have looked at the sun when it shone Or the moon going in splendor, And my heart became secretly enticed, And my hand threw a kiss from my mouth, That too would have been an iniquity calling for judgement, for I would have denied God above. [Job 31]” How glorious is He, having created the heavens and the earth and filling them! As it is written, “He is not served by human hands, as though He needed anything, since He Himself gives to all people life and breath and all things [Acts 17]” and “For every beast of the forest is Mine, The cattle on a thousand hills. I know every bird of the mountains, And everything that moves in the field is Mine. If I were hungry I would not tell you, For the world is Mine, and all it contains. [Psalms 50]” But indeed, “Out of the Eater came something to eat, And out of the Strong came something sweet. [Judges 14]” The sacrifices offered to idols are not eaten since idols are dead, but the sacrifices offered to God are eaten by Him. Even so, God does not desire the sacrifice of animals although they were offered according to His Law, but instead, He gave the Sacrifice of His Son, Jesus Christ. And “By this will we have been sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all [Hebrews 10]” He is the powerful Lion from the tribe of Judah, bringing to us the sweet-fulness of the gospel of truth, in whose end is eternal life. He is the perfect image of the invisible God — in Him we know the Father. He died for our sins & was raised for our justification. In Him there is no sin or deceit, but grace & truth. Therefore, turn from idols and to the living God. (This is your bookmark)